

Pat Crook

June 6, 1935 - June 4, 2017

Patricia Yarbrough Crook died peacefully June 4, 2017.

She was born June 6, 1935 in Beulah, Ala. and was the daughter of Hubert Gill and Mary Williams Yarbrough.

Visitation is at McKoon's Funeral Home in Newnan, Georgia from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 6. The funeral service is at Senoia United Methodist Church on Wednesday, June 7 at 2 pm with Dr. Danny Barton and Rev. Erik Mays officiating. Mr. Jim Preece will be the musician for the service. She will lie in state from 1PM to 2PM at the church. Following the graveside service, all are invited to a church meal in the fellowship hall with the family. Pallbearers are Leigh Morgan, Bob Tinsley, Tray Baggarly, Jim Hutchinson, Carl McKnight and Hal Sewell.

In lieu of flowers the family respectfully request contributions to the Senoia UMC Capital Improvement Fund.

Crook was a graduate of both Alabama Polytechnic Institute for her bachelor's degree and the newly named Auburn University for her master's degree. She moved to Newnan to teach home economics at East Coweta School in Senoia, where she met the local grocer at a school dance. He started sending her treats along with that day's groceries to the school, and they married after a four year courtship, and she settled in Senoia and joined the Senoia United Methodist church, where she served and chaired many committees and taught Sunday school and Bible school regularly for years.

After her children were born, she changed her certification and taught a generation of elementary school children, who at first feared and then loved her. When she retired from teaching, she kept busy doing things she loved to do - taking trips, playing bridge, participating in the Senoia Variety Club, playing bunco, and going to the local coffee shop and Senior Center weekly for visits with friends.

"Miss Pat" will be remembered as organized, a great cook, dedicated to her community, defiant when she needed to be, and someone who could manage a crisis. She was a true Southern lady.

Those who wish may send condolences to the family online at www.mckoon.com

She is survived by her husband of almost 57 years, Ellis Crook, children Cheryl Thompson (John) and son, Greg Crook, grandchildren ;Gregory and Jordan Lee Crook. A son, Ken, predeceased her in 2005.

“ Pat, Mrs. Yarborough, was my Home Ec teacher for 4 years. She was instrumental in my decision to become a teacher. For all the years I have been running a home, each day I have remembered the things she taught me. She was, has been and is an inspiration to me and to many of the students she taught. She made a real difference in our lives.

My condolences to her family and all those who loved her.

Prayerfully,

Sharon Todd Spofford

“ *Dear Ellis and Family,
We are sorry to hear of Pat's death. It has been many years since Hal Jones Construction Company poured the sidewalks, curbs and gutters in downtown Senoia. We knew just about everyone. Times have really changed and many have gone before US to be with the LORD.*

May the Good Lord give you peace, love and contentment during this difficult time.

*God loves you and we do too,

Harvey and I are lifting your family in prayer. May God cover you with his comfort, peace and love. Ellis, you and Pat have been my friend for over 45 years. I have many special memories of you both. When Tom and I moved to Senoia in 1969, Pat was the first one to our house, bringing food and giving us a warm welcome. What a blessing she was.
