

Patricia Ann Craven

April 26, 1952 - March 31, 2009

Patricia Ann Brown Craven, age 56, of Newnan died March 31 at her residence. Patricia was a native of Newnan and was born April 26, 1952, the daughter of Durell and Betty Hendrix Brown. She was preceded in death by her father and also a daughter, Christy Ann Baker. Patricia's life was one of dedicated service to her customers and concern for the welfare of others. She owned and operated Patricia's Florist and Interior Designs. Her hallmark attention to detail and enthusiasm for her work assured her clients that she would not rest until she felt her very best had been done to fulfill her customer's expectations. It was always her desire to give more than was expected. During her illness she felt blessed to have been sent her "angels" who helped her keep her shop open through some very difficult days. For Patricia, red was more than a color. It exemplified a zest for life and a flair for style. The same person who created delicate floral designs could, at other times, be just as at home on a Harley or enjoying a custom car event showing off her red 1936 Ford truck. One could ask no more of life than to be counted among Patricia's circle of friends. For her, it was always about being the best friend to others and putting others' feelings first. The rest, she felt, would take care of itself. Patricia is survived by her mother Betty Hendrix Hill who has been so helpful in caring for Patricia during her illness. Also surviving is her devoted husband, William Fred Craven; a son, Charlie Baker and his wife Ann; granddaughter Laura Melton and great granddaughter, Gracie Melton. Her sisters are JoAnn Fant and Gail Flanders and her brother is Phillip Hill.

“ I will forever remember Ms. Pat for her special smile and sweet laugh. She always made me feel like the world was a much better place because she was in it. God must have needed a Master Floral Designer in Heaven to take her away at such a young age. Charlie, my heart goes out to you and your family. I will keep all of you in my prayers as you embrace this loss. Pat Craven will be missed by many who loved her.
