“ So sorry I could not be there with all of you for Pat's service. What a lovely, lovely person she was. Pat as a dedicated mother, and her Christian faith was a strength to her and to her friends. Her love for children was something you could sense – and see. I will be praying for all of her family.

“ Pat was a beautiful soul. She was always bright and fun and upbeat. Having her in ones life was a blessing. If she were your friend, your life was enriched. I was one of the fortunate ones to call her friend. I was one of many who loved her. Janet Marshall

I just found out today that a great friend and listener passed without me knowing. She was the glue that cemented a long lasting love of family and friends. I pray her spirit lies with God and she found peace, restful to her soul. Blessings to you my friend. Donna Morse-Johnson
