

Patricia Turner Phillips

May 9, 1938 - August 18, 2025

We regretfully announce the passing of our Mom, Patricia Ann Turner Phillips of Newnan on August 18, 2025, when she joined her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Mom had a true servant's heart and lovingly cared for her family and anyone she ever met.

Born Patricia Ann Turner on May 9, 1938, to Clinton Levi and Willie Mae Turner, Mom was the fourth of six children and the last surviving of her siblings. Mom graduated from Western High School in Welcome, GA. Mom married the love of her life, Clarence Junior Phillips, in 1956, and they were married for 57 years.

Mom was preceded in death by her mother, Willie Mae Turner; her father, Clinton Levi Turner; her husband, Clarence Junior Phillips; her siblings, Mary Lee Turner Jordan, Horace Turner, Eleanor Alexander, Evelyn Olmstead, and Geneva McKenzie.

Mom is survived by her sons, Mark Phillips (Tara Hahn) of Talking Rock, Georgia, and Todd Phillips (Gina) of Peachtree City, Georgia. Mom is also survived by her beloved grandchildren, Josh Phillips (Crystal) of Estill Springs, Tennessee, and Zach Phillips (Meghan) of Minneola, Florida. Mom was the proud Great Grandmother of Chloe, Abby, Brynleigh, Maddie, and Liam. Known to her many nieces and nephews as "Aunt Tricia", she leaves behind so many from the Phillips and Turner families.

Our family is grateful for the care Mom received at Ethica Avalon and Affinis Hospice during the last years of her life.

“ I know Aunt Patricia will be sadly missed by her family. She was such a sweetheart. She and Uncle Junior bought our house on Martin Street. A few years ago my mom and I were driving thru the old neighborhood and I suggested we stop so I could see my childhood bedroom. We had not called in advance but Aunt Patricia graciously invited us in and satisfied my longing. That was the last time I saw her. That beautiful memory will be with me forever.

I worked with Aunt Patricia at Marion's thrift town for many years. There wasn't a day go by that we didn't laugh about something. I will treasure my time with her forever and her smile and laughter. I know she is rejoicing with Jesus now. Praying for you all during this time.
