“ I have known Pat since third or fourth grade at Sargent. We graduated from Western High School in 1961. She was one of the sweetest people. A good friend and I will miss having her on this Earth with me.

“ I had the privilege of meeting Pat at the last Western High School reunion. I had not known her before, but she had such a beautiful smile and an open heart that welcomed anyone who met her. I wish there had been more time to see her again and I know she will be missed very much. May God embrace and comfort Roger and all Pat's family and friends knowing that her light still shines in all those who were blessed to have known her. Diane O'Dell

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I know all too well the pain of losing a mother. Pat was a beautiful person inside & out & so very kind. She told me how much she loved her family & even though she's gone, her love for all of you will never go away. When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure.

“ I am sorry to hear about Pat. May the God of all comfort be with you. God will soon do away with death, and pain. Revelation 21:4 "He will wipe out every tear form our eyes, and death will be no more,neighter will mourning more outcry be any more. The former things have passed away." I hope this scripture will bring you some hope and comfort.

“ My dear Pat, I miss you so much. To her precious family that she loved so much: It's hard to know what to say, except that you are thought of in friendship, sympathy and much love. May you find comfort in knowing that Pat touched lives of so many others and gave them the gift of happy memories. May it comfort you to know that Pat is safe in God's care now. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves memories that no one can steal. Although it's hard to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memories help comfort your tomorrows. Those we love never go away. They walk beside us everyday. Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved, still missed. You are in our thoughts and prayers. To know Pat, was to love her. . With love to all, Kathy and Tim.
