“ I have the sweetest memories of being in Patricia's home when I was growing up with Missy and Royce Ann. In spite of her always knowing what was going on with us kids, her demeanor was kind and her home was always a soft place to land. Your family will be in my prayers as I know she will be greatly missed.

“ Can't believe she's gone! We shared some exciting times. She would call and tell me, be standing at the curb, be there in a minute, okay I would say, she would drive up, I would get in and away we would go. Thelma and Louise, I can't divulge our missions, some were top secret, some were hilarious, some were dangerous, some were embarrassing, some were over the top, some were illegal, I'm not sure about the statute of limitations on our missions so I will stop right here cause Patricia has left and I am the only one left to face the music if the details of our shenanigans ever gets out, and she knows how claustrophobic I am and what a nut I would be if I got locked up. She was my best friend in every way possible from early morning wake up calls to sick calls to bring medicine during the night. She was my confidant, my counselor, my advisor, my friend, my family, and my heart. I will never, ever forget my best buddy, I will always love Patrica!
