“ Tim was a heck of a guy,he treated me like a son,I sold him alot of merchandise at RDC auction,he and Diane we're frequent customers there,me and Tim used to talk on the cb radio,his handle was "bad luck" mine was "bargain hunter" I haven't been to the auction since September 2017 since I took a full time job and lived off of a settlement from an ex employer where I worked at,Tim was like me,had a passion for old cars,may he walk with the Lord Jesus Christ, until we meet again,your old friend, Jasper Hayes p.s. I still have that old Ford Ranger

“ I hope everyone will be okay. Mom(your daughter Renee) is hurt that she never was informed.. even though y'all have spoken recently.. wanted to come see you and go to the funeral to pay her respects but she doesn't feel welcomed.. she always wanted a good relationship with you and for you to see us grandkids.. (me, Timberly, Brandon) I wish I could of brought my son to see you (your great grandson.. Cooper Jace Clary, 3) I always wanted to see if you really wanted us in your life or not. I wish my mom could of been treated differently.. it's hard on her. I hope your wife was great to you and understands how my mother doesn't feel welcomed and tried to respect that anyways.. maybe when we see you on the other side real family will be reunited and we can see you.. I pray your with Jesus and watch over mom everyday. I know she still has questions and wants and wishes on things that never changed. Your gonna always be in my thoughts and I'm always gonna wonder why things had to be like this.. 💔🖤
