“ There are way too many good memories we share, but the love this man had and the strive to keep on regardless of how he was feeling to keep a roof over his son, Hunters head is beyond amazing. His etics and love was one of a kind. I love and miss you best friend. Always there to help me, regardless of he really had the means. I remember this one time I had a horrible toothache and we were coming back from Griffin this past December taking Hunter to see his mom. He was looking everywhere for a Pharmacy that had a specific oragel mouthwash for me to stop my pain. I wrote on the receipt thank you as I was using it. His reply was your welcome baby, I hate to see you hurting. We smiled and hugged. I love and miss you, fly high baby, fly high.
