“ Beloved Fambro Family , So sad that we've lost our hero , Paula . She truly was a "fighter" & fought a long & painful battle . Every time I saw her we both broke into tears along with loving HUGS & numerous "I love you' . In fact , the first words she said after she was out of ICU was "I love you" . I had gone to the hospital to see her & when I had to leave , I sat on her bed & said "I love you " . She looked me square in the eye & said "I love you " . What a rejoicing time we had from those 3 simple words . They still work wonders in people's lives . I cherish all the memories That us Mooney's & Fambro's have made over so many years . I just turned 96 & can't believe it . I'll close with my favorite "I love you " .

“ Jeff and family, I'm sure that you don't remember me but Paula and I got to be friends when our now exes were friends and we would eat with the Fambros on Farmer Street, play bingo at the Moose Club and go other places. I always enjoyed knowing Paula and her family and spending time with y'all. I am so sorry to learn of her passing.

“ Jeff, Joe and family. Just heard of Paula passing. So sorry to hear. Farmer St had a lot of good memories of friends. Paula was one of them. I was just thinking of the time she wanted to go see yalls grandmothers red tin roof near Cole Shop. So we took a walk. Your dad found us and brought us home. We were in a lot of trouble. We were only 4 or 5 years old. Prayers to the family.

Fambro Family , I have no words that will heal your broken hearts but I have tons of memories from our LONG "family" connection . I first knew Ophelia when I was 8 years old . The Worley's lived across the street from us . I will forever cherish my memories of the Worley - Fambro :kin" . After losing my son Steve last Dec. I'm thankful Johnie & Ophelia didn't have to suffer the heart-wrenching agony of losing an adult child . I'll be 96 on the 19th & wish I could see & try to comfort you all . United in love , Evelyn Mooney
