Peggy I will never forget the summers spent with you and Herman at the pool every weekend. You'll be missed dearly. I wish I had heard of your passing sooner than I did. Glad you and Herman are back together again.

“ Aunt Peggy had a great smile and laugh. Her whistle could be heard throughout the neighborhood, we knew it was time to go home! She loved her family so much. Rest easy in the arms of Jesus. Give Robin a hug! I love you Aunt Peggy.

“ Rest in peace Ms. Peggy. I remember being in your girl scout troupe when I was twelve years old. I'm 64 now, and I very much cherish my time with the troupe. I loved the Camp Welcome, and especially the Camp Pine Valley, camping trips that you, Ms. Thelma, and Ms. Sandy took the troupe on. Those are among the most cherished memories of my childhood. Rest in Peace, ma'am.. 🙏💕
