“ I’ve been reflecting on memories of Aunt Penny and I will always associate her with a distinctive sense of humor, ready laughter and signature grin (when I was young, she was a rare grown up who would subtly point out opportunities for benign mischief at family gatherings). She had a great love for her family, and we are keeping Uncle Bill and her beloved children and grandchildren in our thoughts at this time.

“ Our prayers are with you Bill at this time when you are feeling such a loss at Penny passing away. On the day you two would have been celebrating your wedding anniversary you will be celebrating her life at her funeral mass. You, Kenny, John Robert, Donna and grandchildren are all being sent our condolences and most of all our Love, Elaine & Joe
