“ I did not know your family or Tyler personally but I am a member of the Griffies family and Newnan is my hometown. I cannot begin to imagine your heartbreak over the tragedy of losing such a precious and very special son but I want your entire family to know that as a mother my heart aches for your loss. I know that there are no words that will comfort you at this time but I will continue to pray that God will sustain you with His grace and His mercy. Tyler has left this physical realm we know on Earth but I have complete faith that he now is with our Father in Heaven awaiting the day you will all be joined together again. I will continue to pray that God will give you the peace that passes all understanding.

“ Our prayers to you at this unimaginable time. Our daughter Cristina is a sophomore at Heritage and knew who Tyler was from some classes, although she was new to the school last year. We watched the funeral service at First Baptist via the Live Streaming and were so touched by the outpouring of love from all the speakers. Just the fact that the church was overflowing and they decided to have the Streaming shows how loved and respected Tyler was. He obviously was a very special person. May God give you all strength and may you rejoice in the memory of Tyler, and in knowing how many people he touched in his all-too-brief life. Best wishes from the Couvillion Family--José, Susie, Cristina, and Diego

“ There really aren't any words, I didn't know Tyler but is a remarkable young man and brought much happiness and many laughs to those who loved him. One thing I've learned is that mourning isn't an expression of loss but Unspeakable Love. It is amazing how much Tyler is loved... he will not be forgotten... he was born into a great family... with great friends. I know he will be missed!

“ I have lived in Newnan all of my life, as well as my family as far back as my great grandparents. I did not know your son Tyler, nor any of the family. Coming through downtown a moment ago, I witnessed the MOST AMAZING SIGHT I HAVE EVER SEEN. The line of friends & family stretched from the entrance of McKoons, through the parking lot & down the sidewalks all the way to the park, This goes to show WHAT A WONDERFUL soul Tyler must have been!! This showing of love for your son has to be an awesome heartwarming feeling. I am praying that God will wrap his loving arms around each & everyone of y'all, as only He can & comfort you.
