“ *My condolences to the family of Mrs. Phoebe Coggins .I will truly miss our talks we had at Soutland everyday. When she would make her way to the dining hall for her afternoon snack. I would always give her a snack and we would just sit and chat .Phoebe was a gentle soul. May God Bless you all during your time of bereavement. “ Lisa and family: You all did so much for her, she loved you so much...and Lisa, it was comforting to know that you were by her side at the end. We could always rest assured, knowing you were taking good care of her and always had her best interests in mind. Thank you for making her last days the best they could be, by being there for her. We love you.
