“ Priss was a wonderful friend to myself and my husband, Donnie. I remember the first time I met her, when Chuck brought her to our house back in the 1970's. Such a sweet person! Loved her when we met her! Chuck, we knew for a few years! They made a great couple. Remember and enjoyed times as are kids grew up. We played alot of cards, dominoes in Illinois, Texas, Arkansas! Last time I saw Priss was 3 weeks before Chuck passed away! Had a nice visit with them in Georgia. I am deeply sorry to hear of her passing. Such a vibrant lady! I will miss her, as we do Chuck. Hard to let good friends go, but she will be with her loving husband, family and friends. Note to her kids and grandkids, she cherished each of you! We always talked about our kids to each other. As for me, I will always remember our shared time and memories we had together.
