

Rachael Ann Cole

May 15, 1955 - April 19, 2023

Rachael P. Cole, of Sharpsburg, Ga, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, April 19, 2023. She was born in Newnan on May 15, 1955, to the late Joe E. Pope, Sr., and Clara Nell (Ashley) Floyd. She is survived by her husband, children, and grandchildren, and siblings.

Rachael served in the banking industry in Newnan and Sharpsburg for over thirty years. She was a graduate of Newnan High School and the Georgia Banking School. Her warmth and personality preceded her everywhere she went; she served her community over the years in various volunteer roles, including Sharpsburg Baptist Church, Special Olympics, and the Rutledge Center. An avid reader, she shared her love of books with family and friends.

Following her retirement in 2014, she didn't slow down; her energy and affection went to her flowers, her rock garden, and her jewelry making business, Charmies by Cole. She became a fixture at craft fairs in the area, a bright pink banner and a smile greeting every customer. She was a people person; remembering names, relations, and interactions. Rachael connected with everyone that spoke to her, and was a great listener. Held in the highest regard, she will be missed greatly, but we are warmed by her memory and her love for us.

“ Clay,
I was so saddened by the news of Rachael's death. She was always such a sweet and beautiful lady. I kept up with Rachael on Facebook and enjoyed her photos of her family and her Rock Garden. She was so proud of both. I also had the pleasure of running into her at the Sharpsburg Art and Craft Festival. We talked for the longest time and I bought charmies from her for my friends. She and I picked out special charmies based on the personality and hobbies/interests of each friend. I will cherish each one she made for me. I will miss her kind words on Facebook as she cheered for me in my recent travels and adventures. I loved her smile and I will miss her. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have known Rachel a long time. I taught her son, Blue, in second grade. I have been friends with the family for about 40 years. Loved running into her at craft shows. She was really a genuine, warm lady. Sending prayers for comfort to the family.

“ I am so very to hear of your loss. My husband, Bobby, and I were helped often by Rachel in the bank. She was always a joy to work with. Of course, Ms. Nell Floyd, Rachel's mother, worked so hard for many years at Rutledge, serving in many capacities. The whole family was important to Rutledge over the years. My thoughts will be with you all in the coming days and months.

“ My prayers are with all the family. We were in homeroom one year together at NHS. She was such a nice person then and that never changed. So sad to hear this terrible news. May God's peace be with the family during this difficult time.
