

Ralph Edward Jackson

October 28, 1919 - April 17, 2008

Mr. Ralph Edward Jackson, age 88, of Newnan, died April 17, 2008 at Piedmont Hospital in Atlanta as a result of complications from a recent fall. A native of Coweta County, he was born October 28, 1919 in the St. Charles community and was the son of the late William Ishmael and Myrtie Kate Brock Jackson. Besides his parents, he was preceded in death by his siblings Leroy Jackson, Doris Head and Frances Reid. Until recently, Ralph had made his home in the Moreland community. He had retired from Sewell Plastics in Atlanta. For 67 years he had been the proud husband of Earlene Hall Jackson. Together they created a heritage rich in family and friends. One of Ralph's greatest enjoyments in these last years has been in traveling with family members who operated Collins Transport and Courier Service. No matter what the destination, he and Earlene were always "ready to go". In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children Louise Duncan, Joe Jackson and Judy Johnson. His grandchildren are Tommy Collins, Tina White, Katie Bates, Will Jackson and Lisa Marsh. Also surviving is a brother William "Bill" Jackson and a sister Katherine Norman and a sister-in-law, Faye Jackson. His 11 great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends completed the circle of love in his life. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street in Newnan. Visitation with the family will be on Saturday evening from 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM. The funeral service will be on Sunday, April 20, 2008 at 2:00 PM in the McKoon Funeral Home chapel with Pastor Jeff Hines officiating. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Online
