

Randall Lee McMahan

August 20, 1969 - February 8, 2026

Randall Lee McMahan, age 56, passed away on Sunday, February 8, 2026, at Piedmont Newnan Hospital with his family by his side. Randall was born in Salisbury, NC, on August 20, 1969, to Donley Allen McMahan and Jane Moran McMahan.

Randall was a strong, devoted husband and father. Not only did he dedicate his life by working hard to provide for his family, he also had a soft, witty side to him where he could make anyone in the room laugh. He stood strong in his faith and shared with his family that, "If one person comes to Christ through his death then it will be worth it!" This is a testament of what a man he was, and still is. He made such an impact on everyone he came across, and his presence will certainly not be forgotten.

He was a man of focus, discipline, precision, love, and hope—a leader of his family, community, and work family. He was fearless and a trusted ally. He was selfless, honorable, and extremely hard working, constantly looking for things to fix and how he could improve. He was a great story-teller and a real go-getter. He led his family and as many people as he could to Christ.

Randall was a selfless warrior. One who would set aside his hardships to provide for those in need. His legacy will not be forgotten but carried on through those he taught and inspired.

His impact was tremendous, his light and smile were great, and his legacy still lives. Randall is what you call a beacon of hope-a great father, husband, leader, and Christ-follower.

The memorial service celebrating Randall's life is Tuesday, February 24, 2026, at 2:00 PM at GO Church, 3935 GA-34 E, in Sharpsburg, with Pastor David Waldroup officiating.

Along with his parents, Randall is survived by his beloved wife, Rachel Hinton McMahan, and their four children, Blake, LeErin, Gabriel, and Nathaniel. He is also survived by his siblings, Mitchell McMahan (Kim), Donley McMahan (Gail), Beth Stovall (Josh), numerous nieces and nephews, and a long list of extended family who will dearly miss him.

“ In the time that knew Randall, he became a little brother to me. There is one thing that was certain, If Randall said he was gonna do something, he did it. He had more determination and grit when he got involved in a project than any human I have ever met. God gave him nerves of steel and the patience's of Job. He truly cared about everybody that he came in contact with. He made my life better for just knowing him. I'll miss you little brother.

“ My condolences and prayers for the family and friends of Randall. I had the pleasure of working with Randall on many projects at Plant Yates. He was a very kind and pleasant man to be around. He always went above and beyond to help others. His positive attitude and graceful demeanor are what I remember most about Randall. I pray that God brings peace to his family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Rip and I are so very very sorry for this devastating loss. Our sincere condolences to all the family. The family we know are such great Christian people that we are sure their faith will get each through this. Right now we pray our father holds them tightly and that the Holy Spirit will provide all the peace possible at this time. God bless. Love.

“ To the family I send my condolences. As a part of the Plant Yates family, please know that Randall will be greatly missed. I've worked with and have gotten to know Randall for many years. He was passionate about his work and he loved to help even before he was asked. He gave so much to GPC Plant Yates and our Community. May God continue to keep you in his care.

“ My condolences and prayers to the McMahan family and I pray God will comfort you in this difficult time.

*I got to know Randall well when I first came to work with Georgia Power at Plant Yates, working with him daily in our roles of maintenance work activities and even more when he came to work for Georgia Power as he and I worked side by side for a few years. His family and his faith were truly his first priorities, and I really enjoyed his friendship over the years as he was a great co-worker. He will be missed but over time so many good memories will bring a smile to many.
Rest in peace!*

“ Randall was a great person. I really enjoyed our time working together at Plant Yates and how we often crossed paths around town and were able to catch up even after I left the plant. He will be missed and our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife and family. His smile was contagious. Sincerely, The Greg Morgan Family
