“ I'm so sorry for your loss, Ginger , Travis and Alex. I felt like Randy was a good man and father. He would always call me after the radio broadcasts of the East Coweta football games and say positive things. He especially was supportive when our son, Mac, played. I enjoyed my years playing softball with him and I enjoyed coaching Travis as a youth. We'll always be grateful to you, Ginger, for your help with our families health. Jill and I want you to know we're praying for your peace and are here if you need us.

“ Bill and I are so sad to hear this news of Randy. He was such a good hearted, friendly guy and classmate. I never heard him say anything bad about anyone.
Ginger, we are praying for God's peace for you and your family. I am so glad we got to visit with him last year at the ball field.
