“ Kay , I'm so sorry for your loss. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. May the good Lord bless you and your family in this time of sadness and grief. Take care of yourself and let others take care of you as well. You have been an a very loving wife, friend, and caregiver. Please take some comfort in knowing how lucky Ray is and was to have such a loving and caring wife.

“ Dawn, we only met your dad one time but he and Bobby shared some fun conversations sitting in our garage & driveway. Your dad had so many "old tales" he shared with Bobby. We know how much you love and will miss him. Deepest condolences to you and your family. As always, you are in our heart and our prayers.
