“Don said he will miss Raymond and Shirley at the polls here in Suches. "They were lots of fun!" We are both so sorry to hear of his passing. He was a good man, an upstanding Christian, uplifting to all he encountered. I cannot recall hearing him say anything unkind to anyone. We need more of his kind in this world.

Our prayers are with Shirley, their son and his family, their many friends.

Love, Don and Harriet Trippe
