“ Will always treasure my time cooking with Ray for Knights of Columbus meetings. He was so knowledgeable and willing to share his 'secrets' with recipes. Cook on brother Ray!

“ Our dear, sweet neighbor Mr. Ray. We loved him so much. In so many ways, he was like a grandfather to my kids. He always had snacks for my kids, and treats for our dog and cat. I know heaven is happy today.

“ Raymond was one the kindest, gentlest and giving person I have ever known.
He always had a funny joke to make you laugh. It was not just the joke he told but how only Ray can tell it. There were many times he had me in tears laughing. But the real fun was watching him laugh, that made you laugh even harder. I think God needs a good laugh these days and decided to call Raymond home to keep him company. I will miss him dearly. The world is a sadder place without him. He will live in my heart forever.
