“ So very very glad we took the trip to travel down and help you celebrate your 50th anniversary. After not seeing each other in some 40 years, I know the good Lord had a hand in making that trip happen. Our sincere condolences and love to you and your family.

“ Ray, for ten years living in Newnan, you and Rene were Angela and my best friends. Golf, nights out, swimming, table games, fantasy sports, and discussing everyday life. When we had a flooded house, you gave us a place to stay. Behind the scenes, you counseled many friends facing cancer diagnoses. You helped those down on their luck. We will miss The Big R. Bless you Rene and family.
Cherish the good times.

“ I worked with Ray at Con-way in Atlanta for many years. He was an extremely effective leader who built great teams that had mutual respect for one another. He was always most proud of his family, and always placed his family first in everything he did. My thoughts and prayers all of you at this time.
