

Raymond Graham

August 9, 1919 - June 8, 2010

Raymond W. Graham, a one year resident of Newnan, died June 8, 2010, at the age of 90. He and his wife moved to Wesley Woods in 2009 from Gainesville, Florida, where they had resided since 1952. Mr. Graham was an architect and was responsible for designing numerous public schools in Alachua County as well as the "new" Alachua General Hospital in Gainesville. He also taught architecture and building construction at the University of Florida, his alma mater. Before moving to Gainesville, he had worked in architectural firms in Leesburg, Florida, and Atlanta, Georgia. He served in the U.S. Navy during WWII.

Raymond was a gardener, a canner of vegetables and pickles and relishes, a lover of sports, art, wine. and gourmet food. He and his wife traveled extensively within the United States.

A memorial service will be held Monday, June 14, 2010 at 4:00 pm at Wesley Woods of Newnan. In lieu of flowers, contributions should be made to the Hospice organization of one's choice.

Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.mckoon.com

Raymond is survived by his beloved wife of 67 years, Betty Anne, his daughter Patricia of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and his son Kerry and daughter-in-law Phyllis, both of Newnan.

McKoon Funeral Home (770) 253-4580

Cemetery Details

McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory

38 Jackson Street
Newnan, GA 30263
(770) 253-4580
care@mckoon.com
<http://www.mckoon.com>

Tribute Wall

BB

“ Dear Kerry and Phyllis, Thank you for letting me know Mr. Graham transitioned. Certainly, as much as he will be missed, we celebrate his long and very fulfilling life. My condolences to Mrs. Graham, also. Love always, Barbara

Barbara Boers - June 17, 2010 at 07:46 PM

AP

“ dearest Kerry, reading about Mr. Graham I felt I could have been reading about you. your special talents could have come straight from your daddy. What a blessing to your life. Our hearts reach out to you as you adjust to the new parental feelings you will experience. We also keep Mrs. Graham close in prayer as she deals with her loss the best she can. love to you and yours,

Al and Billie Padgett - June 12, 2010 at 10:22 AM