“ So sorry to hear of your loss, Jim. I know you and your family feel like there is a hole in your life. I understand. This is one of the times in life when my 3 legged stool is what holds you up. Faith, family, and friends. You will need all three. Prayers for you and your family

“ I remember Reba from when she first started at Delta. With Janet, i thought of us as the three Musketeers, because we all started so close together. I will never forget the trips a bunch of took together. Boy were they fun. I will miss knowing you are no longer around. Thanks for all you meant to me.

“ My deepest condolences to the entire Binion family. Me and miss Vickie are heartbroken, and will miss The Rebs very, very much. She was the epitome of loving and living. I know she'll be keeping an eye on all those grand and great-grandkids from Heaven. ❤️

“ Prayers for all the family.

Although I had not seen Reba since retirement from Delta, I have many fun memories of our years at work. Reba was always such as "people person" with a smile for all. I remember helping build the log home barhs and donating a spare sofa for Chris to use there, when they first moved in. Seems like a million years ago, but also like yesterday.

Peace to you all.
