“ I was sorry to hear Preacher McWhorter had passed away. I worked with him a lot at various times on his rental properties. Of course, he loved to talk so we often spent a lot of time talking mostly about church, Bible and things related. He was always on an even keel with a smile on his face and every time with an extended hand when we met. I'm sure he is enjoying the beauties of heaven and reuniting with the many he lead to the Lord. He has already heard I'm sure the words, "well done thy good and faithful servant".

God's blessings on his family.
