“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Smith family and also share a comforting promise from God's word at Revelation 21:3-4 which says:With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:Look the tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ I have been flooded with calls and e-mails from Abby's fellow Confirmands expressing sadness and concern for you all. Abby, your brother and sister Confirmands and Counselors love you so much and hurt with you. We pray that you have the confidence and peace of knowing that your Momma is waiting to see you again in Heaven. You all have been blessed with a wonderful, caring mother. Cherish that memory until you meet again. your brother in Christ, Mr. John and the Confirmands and Counselors

“ I know there are no words that can take away the pain you must be feeling right now but maybe the promise Jesus made that all those dead who are in his memory will be reunited with their loved ones, will give you hope, Jesus demonstrated his power and willingness to do this when he was here on earth when he resurrected several people and gave them back to their famil. So pour out your heart to him in prayer for the bible says that our Creator is near to those that are broken at heart, Psalm 34:18. May the God of all comfort grant you peace. Sincerely, Angie

“ Dear Smith Family, Words simply can not express how sorry we are to hear about you loss. Rhonda was my first friend when I first moved to Georgia. She was so friendly & outgoing when we met at the pool. She made us feel so welcome & was always willing to lend a helping hand even when she had her hands full. Even though we drifted apart over the years I'll never forget that. Our thoughts & prayers are with your family.
