

Richard C Bray

March 19, 1930 - March 19, 2017

Richard Clarke Bray passed away on his 87th birthday -March 19th. Born in Iowa, his family settled in Rockford, Illinois where he met his wife Audrey Marie Hennen. After serving in the Navy, Richard graduated from Northern Illinois University with a degree in accounting. After moving to South Carolina (Orangeburg) and South Georgia (Fort Valley), Richard and Audrey moved their family to Newnan, Georgia in 1971 where Richard took the position of Controller for Newnan Hospital. Realizing an affinity for income tax preparation, he took classes, later taught classes and finally became the business owner of two H&R Block franchises (Peachtree City and Fayetteville). He was a master gardener and an active member of the community, serving on the City Of Newnan Parks Commission and volunteering to help with local voting polls during elections. Richard was known for his quick wit and sense of humor. He enjoyed family beach trips, culinary creations, reading, gardening, photography and spending time with family and friends. He will be missed greatly.

Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.mckoon.com.

Richard was predeceased by his wife, Audrey Bray and his son Richard Thomas Bray (Dawn). He is survived by his daughters Sally Bray Chambers (Rick) and Judy Bray Adair. He is also survived by his grandchildren: Emily (Darryl) Diosomito, Andrew Bray, Katie (Adam) Cowen, Alex (Greg) Gallagher, Allen Adair and several great grandchildren. In lieu of flowers donations will be accepted by the City of Newnan Parks Department – Attn: Katrina Cline,

“ I remember Mr. Bray from his and my days at Newnan Hospital. He was a pleasure to work with, and for. He always talked about his family, and I knew how much he loved and treasured them. He was a good man and I thought very highly of him. I am so sorry to hear of his death, and I pray Gods comfort to you all. He will be missed.
