“ Dear Ronnie, I had the pleasure of meeting your Dad on several occasions, what a wonderful kind and funny man who will be greatly missed. I want to offer my deepest condolences to you and your family. What we have once enjoyed, we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes part of us. Sincerely, Lisa

“ Ronnie & Family; Please accept my heartfelt sympathy on the passing of your father. So many times we fear death, but death has no power over a child of God, it is only the means of transportation from this world into the presence of God. As born again believers we have no reason to fear death, for Christ has overcome death and the grave. Brian Groover, GDOT
