“ Your death is the end of a wonderful era in the Davis family. While I will miss you terribly I know you and granny are together in heaven once again holding hands continuing your 70 year journey. I will make sure your heartfelt tales live on, especially the one where "you traded an old milk cow for $12.00 and bought a suite to marry granny in." I feel so blessed to have been a part of your family. Love and miss you.....
