“ When your Uncle Kimo & I got engaged, your dad took us aside and gave us a beautiful lecture about how "love is like a seed...plant it, water it, through the cultures of nature..." Now we've been married almost 40 years, and we still remember his words of love and encouragement for our marriage. We loved him very much and we will miss him. May God bless and comfort you all. Much love & aloha, from Kimo & Norma Kimokeo, Kahaluu, HI

I'm so sorry I never replied to you. I didn't realize I had messages in the funeral homes website.

My cell is 770-241-8915

Text or call anytime. You have stamped my heart with the example of tender, sweet love and I am so excited that dad impacted you and ones around you in such a huge way.

Thank you for reminding me of the words of that beautiful poem. Do you know all of it?

That was my favorite poem and tiny bubbles was my favorite song. I didn't save either of them and I really appreciate you talking a moment to reach out and recite some of the poem.

I love you all and always have and always will.

Let's connect.

I hope you get this message.

Aloha

“ Pocho was certainly one of a kind and because of that, we had some fun times in Virginia. I'm sure Leilani, Billy and all the family will miss him but am certain he left behind many good memories to comfort you. So sorry for your loss.
