“ Family of "Morris" Hammock, So Sorry to hear of Morris's death. We thought his name was Morris and that is what we called him. He was a good man. Mildred daddy, B.A. Oliver pulled logs for the Hammock Boys and her brother Clyde drove a truck hauling chips for them, when their business was on the Carrolton Hwy. I first met them when they were cutting timber for Daddy (Hal Jones) on what is now Hal Jones Road. Later years I saw Morris in Kroger one day and he had a walking stick. I asked him what was wrong, he said he had a tire to blow out on that side and he had to get it pumped back up. He had had a stroke, which I didn't know about. He also had a sense of humor. May God bless you, God loves you and we do too, Don and Mildred
