“ RIP my union brother.. this takes me back to when we were very young in 82' I believe it was.. my memories of us are happy ones I enjoy reflecting on.. playing pool, tipping a few back and trying to pickup chicks with Tom at Billy Bob's country disco bar.. times hanging out with my cousins in Austin, going to the Willie Nelson festivals, and floating the Guadalupe river, and hanging out with everyone at Jay and Ronda's playing cards and partying with the gang.. miss the good times and miss you my friend.. RIP

“ Lighting a candle for you from the Class of '74, Bobby. We all have great memories of your years with us in school, football, your Mom and Dad in the early years at Jack Day Park next door to your house, etc. We had lots of laughs in classes over the years. RIP Bobby. Gone too soon.

I know I met Bobby before he and Donna married but can't exactly remember when. Of course, I was at their wedding. Donna and Bobby always welcomed me in their home and both helped me through some of the worse times in my life. Bobby was a great husband and father and I know he was enjoying his first grandchild. My heart is broken for Donna and her family.

I met Bobby back around 74'. I dated his sister back then, Denny (we are now married), so I saw him a good bit at their home. After he left the Coastguard, he attended the same college as me. We hung out and had some fun many times at my apartment, right off campus. He was a stand-up gentleman and always fun to be around. Yes, gone way too early in life. I actually just ran across this bookmark, 4yrs after he died, so I'm sorry to be so late to the party. Denny was living with me at the time and was devastated by his passing. She still remembers the date every year since. RIP, Bobby. Better late than never, right? :-). The feeling is as sincere now as it would have been 4yrs ago.
