“ I met Robert McElwaney @ Steel Inc. in 1983 in the Drafting Church. Loved his laugh & general attitude. Always remember "Big Mac" as a Gentle Giant. We played many softball games together at the Softball country club & other parks. Many BBQ Pig roast were consumed in Robert's backyard as well as mine & other team mates of the Ironmen Softball Team. Memories will live on forever & so do you "Big Mac" :)

“ To Robert's Family, I am so sorry to hear of Robert's passing. I worked with him at Steel, Inc. for many years and he was a true friend. He was a true friend to me when my husband passed away. I'll never forget his wit, We all had many fun lunches together in Buddy Evans' office. Logan I hope you always remember that you were the absolute light of your PawPaw's life. His face would light up when you were mentioned. Always remember how much he loved you. Love to all of you, Nancy Jackson
