

Robert Lamar Pruitt, Jr.

August 16, 1948 - August 28, 2021

Robert L. Pruitt died on August 28, 2021. Rob was one of the most generous people you have ever met. He lived life to the fullest, he loved his family deeply and he always found the positive out of life. He was the son of the late Robert L. Pruitt and Doris Wilson Pruitt. He is survived by his wife, Cindy Pugh Pruitt of Newnan, GA, his daughter, Sommer Pruitt of Aiken, S.C. and sister, Kay Broughman (Ed) of Cayce, S.C. He was a member of First Baptist Church Peachtree City and Gideons International.

You are invited to celebrate the life, love and laughter of Rob Pruitt on Saturday, November 20 at 1:00pm. We will gather to remember Rob and give thanks for the lessons he has left behind for us to carry on. For those who are local, we will gather together at Salem United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall located at 1321 Salem Church Road Irmo, SC 29063.

For those who are unable to join in person, you are invited to join by zoom with link below.

“ SMILING!!! That's what I always remember about Rob. He never met a stranger and He walked with JOY in his spirit. Rob was a prime example of what a Christian should be in our daily walk. Although I have only known Rob & Cindy for the last few years, I quickly took to them like family. I considered Rob to be a mentor and like that really cool uncle you always wanted. (laughing)

I cannot say enough wonderful things about Rob (& Cindy)! These two have taught me to give like no one else. I LOVE THEM BOTH dearly and I bet He is skipping hand in hand with Jesus. Rob will be one of those people who changed you for the good in life. CHEERS & HUGS Rob! I'm going to miss you.

“ Cindy,
So sorry to hear of the passing of Rob. I got to know Rob and work closely with him when he was the President of the St. Andrews-Irmo Sertoma Club. He was one of the most Organized President's we ever had and did a great job. He was a pleasure to be around. Carol and I will have you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Cindy and family. Sometimes distance really hurts, like now. We would have loved to say goodbye to Rob and mourned his passing together with Cindy. We, that's Rob's Dutch family, with whom he became so deeply friends from 1971. Rob served his country as a soldier in Germany in the heyday of the Vietnam War. Together with others, he found a second home in the Netherlands. Our friendship became a brotherhood that lasted 50 years. We will never forget him. Rest in peace, dear friend and brother. We wish Cindy all the strength to bear this loss. Jos & Marjan, Guus & Anka, Jet & Jos, Hanna.

“ Rob will be missed by all who knew him. He was warm and kind in his conversation with others. His hearty laugh made us all smile. He was a wonderful person with a compassionate demeanor whose generosity knew no end. As a staff member at the Real Life Center, I saw firsthand the impact of his giving. He was more than a supporter, he was our friend. He and Cindy have left a legacy of love through their thoughtfulness. He will be forever remembered and loved by those of us here at the Real Life Center! Our prayers are with you, Cindy.

Words cannot express the love Susan and I had for Rob. He was like a brother to me. We shared so many good times and lots of trips with he and Cindy in the U.S. and across the pond. One trip to Europe for over 3,000 miles of driving by Rob with Cindy and Susan sitting in the back seat with luggage high between them so high they couldn't see each other. Trips to New York, Las Vegas, Yellowstone and Canada were some others, again with Rob driving with frequent bathroom stops along the way. Several vacations in the Caribbean and Mexico are memories we will cherish forever. And of course having them at our Christmas dinners and July 4th parties on the lake were always a blast with his winning personality. My Dad especially liked Rob's visits when they went to my Dad's hangouts in Dothan. Having Cindy sing FIVE GOLDEN RINGS when we sang the 12 days of Christmas was the highlight when we sang Christmas carols.

We will miss him so much and pray for God's comfort to Cindy in her future.
