Caryl Martinez, Ken Plunkett and Udell Addison.

Our precious mother suffered daily from her disability and we wanted to share this thought with everyone who had the opportunity to know her.

"The most beautiful people we have known are those who have known defeat, known suffering, known struggle, known loss, and have found their way out of the depths. These persons have an appreciation, a sensitivity, and an understanding of life that fills them with compassion, gentleness, and a deep loving concern. Beautiful people do not just happen."

Mother you will be missed.

“ I loved Ms. Dean. I could always count on her to tell me what the nursing staff had or had not done for my Granny. Granny was her roommate for the time that Ms. Dean was at Pine Knoll. I'd walk in the door and she say, "Mandy, is that you?" I would reply and then she'd ask me about my day; if I had worked or had to go to class (UWG). I'd give her a rundown of my activities as I laid Granny's clothes out for bedtime and the next day. Over the last month and a half, I had been increasingly concerned. Ms. Dean would tell me she was okay tho. I missed her by one hour when she left this world for a better place. I remember sitting down on Granny's bed and bawling my eyes out. She loved every one of her family members. I'd hear about birthdays coming up, trips to the Middle East and who was graduating. I'm going to miss those updates. I'm unable to attend tomorrow's services and it has taken me this long to track down her obituary, but please know that I will be thinking of her now, tomorrow and always.

“ May thoughts of all your mother meant -Of love she gave, of good times spent -Bring you peace and comfort, too, And keep your mother close to you. Though the ones we love may leave life as we know it, in our memory, the love we know will always carry on. Our greatest sympathy. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Dotty, Lisa, Tina, Vesta, and Darry I am so sorry for your loss, but happy for Dean's gain into the presence of our Heavenly Father. I know that you will miss her terribly. However, I also know you would not call her back for anything. Please know that I am praying for each of you as you go about the business (both practical and emotional) that comes with a loved ones home going. I regret that I am unable to attend the service, as I have my Mother, who has advanced Alzheimer's Disease, and neither of us can travel at this time. I wish I could physically hug each of you, and speak with you personally, as I, again, offer my love, concern and deepest sympathies in the loss of your dear mother and sister. ... Marsha Smith

“ Dottie & Lisa, I don't know your whole family, but my heart aches for anyone losing their mother. My same heart is "warmed" by the way I've seen you both treasure the love that you gave and received from her. My prayers of peace are for you and your entire family.
