

Robert Scott Yeager

November 8, 1994 - January 12, 2021

Robert Scott Yeager, 26 of Sharpsburg passed away suddenly Tuesday, January 12, 2021. He was born November 8, 1994 in Newnan, GA. Scott loved his family, his friends, and most of all his little girl. Scott shared a close, special bond with his brother, a bond that many never get the chance to experience in a lifetime. Scott had a big heart and loved helping people. If you was lucky enough to call him your friend then you had a true friend for life. So many have said, he was my friend when no one else would be. Scott loved to go fishing and deer hunting, it brought him peace.

He is survived by his fiancé, Daisy Prosser, whom he loved so much. His daughter, Chloe Yeager that he cherished with his whole heart. He is survived by his parents, Jeff and Bethany McGuffey that loved him so much; his loving Nana, Bernice Yeager, that was so very special to Scott; his grandfather, Ted Dill; and his Pat-Pat, Patsy Faulkner. His brother and best friend Cody McGuffey and his sister, Skyler McGuffey, that he adored. He is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles and cousins that loved and adored him.

“ I am saddened by the news of Scott passing away. He was a spunky student that was liked so much by his teachers and classmates. He will be missed. He and his papa are probably hanging out hunting and fishing! Much love and prayers to his family and friends.
