

Robin Ray Johnson

January 10, 1972 - February 24, 2026

Robin Johnson, 54, passed away on Tuesday, February 24th, at Piedmont Newnan Hospital.

Robin was born on January 10, 1972, in New Orleans, Louisiana, to Ann Widener Ray and the late Charles Ralph Ray. She grew up in Newnan, Georgia, where she built lifelong friendships and deep roots in the community she loved.

Robin graduated as a Licensed Practical Nurse in 2001 from Griffin Technical College. She dedicated her life to caring for others, serving faithfully in the Emergency Room at Piedmont Newnan Hospital for 17 years. She later continued her compassionate work in hospice care for two years, offering comfort and dignity to patients and their families during life's most tender moments. Nursing was not just her profession-it was her calling.

Above all, Robin was a devoted and wonderful mother to her three children and a proud grandmother to five grandchildren who brought immense joy to her life. She cherished her family deeply and created a home filled with love, laughter, and music.

Robin had a passion for reading and found peace in the pages of a good book. She also loved music and enjoyed playing both the piano and drums, filling her home with melody and rhythm. Her warmth, strength, and generous spirit touched everyone who knew her.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, March 7th, at McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, Newnan, Georgia. The family will receive friends and loved ones beginning at 9:30 a.m., with the memorial service starting at 11:00 a.m. For those unable to attend, the service will be webcast.

“ I met Robin in the 10th grade and we became best friends. As years past, when we did connect (a phone call or going out for lunch etc.) we would pick up where we left off. True friends are hard to find and she was a true friend. Robin loved animals, especially her dogs. Her favorite shops were Barns & Noble and Bath & Body Works. Robin also loved movies. One of our last visits out, we went to the movies. Like teenagers (but not) we took a photo both picture together. We had a great time. Laughing etc. My heart breaks and I will always miss her. I treasure all the memories we shared together. Robin loved her family and my heart and prayers are with them.
