

Robin Jon Robbins

May 22, 1937 - April 15, 2014

A lifetime of laughter and love came to an end on April 15, 2014 as Dr. Robin Jon Robbins, PhD, became an angel in God's Heavenly Kingdom. Rob was born May 22, 1937 in Skowhegan, Maine. Anyone having the honor of knowing Rob was surely on the receiving end of at least one- if not more- of his jokes (sometimes several times). Love of laughter, service to his country (Air Force, Marines, and Army) and an unending desire for education defined him. He gave selflessly of his time, and spent his final years helping friends, family, and strangers simply to see the joy in their faces. He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law Craig and Catrina Robbins, and his daughter and son-in-law Kathi and Marshall Sturm, his grandchildren: Brittani Robbins, Alex Upchurch, Jerrica Story, Marshall Sturm II, Travis Legg and wife Kayla, Ryan and Joshua Storey, and his great-grandchildren: Brian, Daniel, Corey, and Alanna Robbins. Condolences can be expressed online at www.mckoon.com. In lieu of fresh flowers, please send potted flowering plants to the funeral home. The memorial service will be held Thursday, April 17, 2014 at 6 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home with Father Paul Massey officiating. McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory 38 Jackson Street, Newnan, GA, 30263 770-253-4580.

“ The Cordero family was truly honored to have met you. Pops you were an angel to our family and we will miss you so much words can't express how we feel. I can't believe how close you can get to a human being in less than a year. Your words of wisdom will forever stay with me. Thank you for everything for your scholastic advice, jokes and your help. I feel sorry for not being closer to you on your last days. I love you pops, you were my chance to love as I wanted to love my grandparents that passed away thousands of miles away from me. You came into my life and I felt God was giving me a chance to redeem myself with you. I wanted to take care of you as if you were my grandparents but you were destined to be with your family, Craig and Catrina. Two other Angels that love you and took care of you until the end. I love you Pops, may you rest in peace.
