“ Gail...I was so sorry to hear about Rodney's tough battle coming to an end. I know he fought a good fight. We were such a close group at AA in Birmingham and Rodney's bubbly personality and laid back ways made him one of my favorites to have around. He was always in a good mood and loved by everyone there. He was a great friend to many and will be missed dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time. I hope that the many wonderful memories of Rodney will help to comfort you in the weeks and months ahead.

“ Gail, I am so, so sorry for your Loss, I worked with Rodney at AA/Sabre and always enjoyed the time spent working together. He was a rare gem and always had this positive quality and gregarious nature. I recall the great meeting he put together up in the high Desert of New Mexico some years back and he got very high praise for doing all the logistics and coming in way under budget. I believe I met you there. Rodney was a Wonderful wonderful guy, but you already knew that , I hope these few words will give you some solace and know how much he will be missed by all of us. The World is a less happy place without Rodney. Rodney, much love brother rest in peace.

“ I am sorry to hear about your husband. May the God of all peace be with you. Job once asked God if an able-body man dies can he live again? Job 14:15 answers "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Yes God has a yearning to bring back to life all those in the memorial tombs. (John 5:28,29) I pray you will find hope and comfort.

It's so very hard to see a loved one slowly slip away; but take comfort in knowing that Robbie is at peace now and no longer in pain. I too have wonderful memories of him that we shared as kids, and I will remember them always. Rest in peace Robbie.*
