“ I taught Blake 3 years while he was at Evans. The first thing I remembered about Blake was the permanent smile he had everyday. It seems I'm not the only one that thought his smile was contagious. My heart, thoughts, and prayers are with his family and friends during this very difficult time.

“ This amazing family lived down the street from us and accepted our kids as their own. This little 5 year old ginger boy would come knocking on our front door looking for his new found friend Tyler... Tyler would do the same thing at their house... days at the swimming pool, whiffle ball, tag, hide & go seek and endless drinks and snacks... it's the simple things in life that matter. Heaven gained an amazing young angel December 3rd... Blake painted an amazing sunset that night. I even captured it! Love you all so much, you have stood strong though many, many storm & to many tragedies. Love, Annette Gossett, Tyler, Britt, Rilynne Beal, Alex Hand.

“ To the family of Blake Payne: You don't know me. I read the heartbreaking story of the wreck and I just had to repsond. I to lost my son (Zachary Harrison) a year and a half ago in a wreck. I know the pain and my heart breaks for you. There aren't any words to help right now. Know that my husband and I are praying for you and your family. Just know that you are not alone. You can contact us if you would like. There are several verses and quotes that have helped us in our journey. Here's a quote that has helped us. Weep but briefly, for your loved ones as the enter into the Kingdom of God, for they possess a Joy and Peace that is Unattainable on God's earthly realm, Rather rejoice in their Everlasting and total happiness for their eyes have seen God.

“ It's hard to believe that we used to be right across the street from one another!
I remember during the Georgia vs Florida game, having a tailgate party in your yard. Man oh Man was that fun!
Even though we haven't spoken in years, know that you are truly missed, and you were an awesome neighbor!
