

Ronald Michael Bonanno

January 28, 1960 - October 25, 2023

Ronald Michael Bonanno, age 63, of Newnan, went to be with the Lord on October 25, 2023, at Piedmont Newnan Hospital. He was born in Amityville, NY on January 28, 1960, to the late Edward Bonanno, and Dora Ruppino Bonanno. In addition to his parents, he is also preceded in death by his sister, Lorraine Ridgeway.

He loved his family and will be dearly missed. He was an avid NY Jets fan and loved watching his team play. When he wasn't watching football, he had the channel tuned to his favorite shows and movies, such as Bones, Chuck, Top Gun Maverick, Tomorrow Wars, and Geek Charming. He also enjoyed doing sudoku, crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, and cooking.

Ronald is survived by his two children, Josh Bonanno, and Christa Bonanno; siblings, Edward Bonanno, Marie Doherty, Lynette D'Amico, Diane McKay, Richard Bonanno, Ann Young, Cecelia Hilton, and Susan Bonanno Warner; and Goddaughter, Kelly McKay.

Services will be held at 2:00 PM on Thursday, November 2, 2023 at Newnan City Church with Dr. Jimmy Ellison officiating. The family will receive friends at the church from 1:00 PM until service time.

Oh my gosh, I'm just now seeing this March 2025. Ron and Bob Cohn were our Light & Sound engineers for a Christian Band Metanoia. We had so many laughs. I always remember Ron being the life of the party always laughing always smiling. I know we love the Lord he will be missed.

“ We knew Ron from St. Barts he was always full of joy and had a passion for the youth. He prayed many prayers for our circle of friends. We used to meet over the Horvath house for youth fellowship and prayer. There was always something to laugh about!! Ron was full of love and always had a listening ear. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends. I'm am sure when he met the Lord He said “Well done my good and faithful servant”!

“ Ron was a good mentor and friend. He was my group leader in St Bart's Life in the Spirit Seminar classes. He was always ready with a smile, prayer and a laugh. He encouraged me to become a volunteer youth leader. Ron, Joe and I spent many happy times riding our bikes to the beach, camping, attending Christian concerts and listening to albums long into the night. Thanks Ron for all those hardy laughs over silly stuff. We know his smile is beaming as he is in our Lord's presence. His family is in our prayers. Love, Cathy and Joe Horvath.

“ Ron was one of the first people who disciplined me with our Lord Jesus. Part of the Life in the Spirit seminar, a member of our home-grown youth group, he was our friend at St. Bartholomew Catholic Church for years. He was even in our wedding. Ron was the sort of man who you might not see for several years, but when we got together or talked on the phone, it was like no time had passed. We loved him dearly. We're so sad to know he is no longer blessing people on Earth with his joyful spirit. But we are comforted knowing he is with the Lord, and did not suffer. See you in Heaven, Brother!
We love you,
Bob and Donna Laichak

Yes Ron was a beautiful soul and always full of joy. He touched many youth and Harry and I knew him from St. Barts. He always took the time to reach the youth of the church and spread the gospel. We send our prayers and condolences from the Horvath and Morgan family. He is visiting my mom Mary up in heaven and all the others that have gone before us! Love Lisa & Harry Morgan
