“ Ronnie was such a good friend to Dad (Joe) and Dad enjoyed going places and eating with Ronnie. I would like to think Ronnie and Dad are in Heaven eating butter peas and laughing.

Our hearts go out to you, Doris, and the rest of the family, because I know you are missing Ronnie like Mom and I are missing Dad (Joe).

“ Dear Family, So sorry to hear of Ronnie's passing. Please know I am praying for you during this time of sorrow. I have some fond memories of him, especially when I made him fried pies, and he would meet me at the car to get them. Of course he would always act out his stories of deer hunting etc. That was hilarious. I am sure each of you have special memories that you will cherish. May God be with you all. Love and Prayers.
