

Ronnie Eugene Railey

March 11, 1957 - January 17, 2025

Ronnie Eugene Railey, 67, of Sharpsburg, Georgia, passed away peacefully on January 17, 2025. Born and raised in College Park, Georgia, Ronnie was known for his warm smile, love of family, and passion for golf.

Ronnie dedicated many years of his life to a career as a salesman at South Towne Motors, where his charisma and dedication left a lasting impression on colleagues and customers alike. In his free time, he enjoyed perfecting his golf swing, a sport he loved deeply, and cherishing time spent with his children and granddaughters.

Ronnie is survived by his loving family, including his son Corey Butler (Billy) of Vancouver, Washington; his daughters Lakesha Nuckols (Paul) of Riverdale, Georgia, and Lauren Mitchell (Kyle) of Winder, Georgia. He was a proud grandfather to Grace and Kyrie Mitchell, as well as Ashlyn and Adalyn Nuckols.

He is also survived by his sister Gail Railey of Sharpsburg, nephews Gary Moulder of Oak City, North Carolina, and Danny Moulder of Clayton, Georgia. Ronnie was preceded in death by his parents, Albert and Juanita Railey, who instilled in him the values of hard work and family devotion.

Ronnie's legacy will be carried on by his loved ones, who will always remember his humor, generosity, and unwavering love for those closest to him.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Ronnie! He was a wonderful man that loved his family. He was always so nice to me and lots of fun to be around. I went to Southtowne in 2005 and was so happy that he was my salesman! I bought a Tahoe from him and he made sure I was treated fairly. Great man that will be missed by so many! Rest in Peace Ronnie! I know you are happy to be back with your Mama and Daddy that you loved so much!
