

Rose Marie Nohra Mansour

December 17, 1932 - June 30, 2024

Mrs. Rose Marie Mansour, 91, of Newnan passed away Sunday, June 30, 2024, at Wesley Woods in Newnan Georgia. She was born December 17, 1932, in Gulfport, Mississippi to the late Samuel G. Nohra and Rosalie Saab Nohra. She was the youngest of four children and the last surviving member of her family. She was preceded in death by her parents Sam and Rosalie, her three brothers Samuel G. Nohra, Jr., Leon L. Nohra and Raymond A. Nohra, her husband James Elias Mansour and a son, Arthur David Mansour. She is survived by her son, Jeffrey Gerard Mansour; daughter-in-law, Karen Elizabeth (Hechler) Mansour of Grantville; grandson, Ethan James Mansour of Luthersville; granddaughter Elizabeth Marie Mansour of Newnan and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Rose Marie moved with her family to New Orleans, Louisiana at the age of thirteen. She graduated from St. Joseph Academy Catholic High School in 1952. She worked briefly for the Gulf Oil Corporation and graduated from the Estelle Compton Modeling School before meeting her future husband in the spring of 1953. James and Rose Marie married on July 28, 1954, in New Orleans, La. and moved to Newnan, Ga. where they remained their entire lives. Together they started Newnan Dry Goods and eventually joined family members in Ellis Mansour's Department Store. She loved golf, playing cards, slot machines, knitting, traveling and cooking, but her greatest loves were her faith and her family, which she cherished immensely. She was a devoted member of St. George Catholic Church. She volunteered for many civic organizations, church bake sales, fundraising and children's groups. She was kind, generous, loyal, funny and faithful, but she also would be quick to offer "advise" if she felt you needed it. She outlived everyone in her family and her husband's family, and she carried the torch with pride as long as she could. She was loved by many and will be missed by all. In her final days she always said, "when I die tell them I'm happy".

The family would like to extend special thanks to Rose Marie's doctors, nurses and caregivers. Especially Lighthouse Palliative Care Team and In Home Health Care Services.

A Rosary/Vigil will be at McKoon Funeral Home in Newnan, Ga on Monday, July 8, 2024, at 5:30 p.m. with the visitation to follow until 7:30 p.m. The Requiem Mass will be held Tuesday, July 9, 2024, at 10:30 a.m. at St. George Catholic Church, 771 Roscoe Road, Newnan with Father Stephen Lyness officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery at 1:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. George Catholic Church, stgeorgenewnan.org or St. Jude Children's Research Hospital www.stjude.org

“ I wanted to say how sorry I am to hear of Ms. Rosie's passing. I loved her to pieces. She and Mr. James lived next door to my mom and her husband, Ann and Bob Kuehl. That crew on Golf Lane was something else! My gosh they had fun together.

Sending hugs and lots of love to all her family and friends. I love that she and James are together again, but she will certainly be missed.

Rose Marie was a very nice person; she had a sharp wit which was refreshing and usually funny. I enjoyed playing bridge with her. My heartfelt condolences to the family.

“ A fun vibrant lady with her beautiful New Orleans accent. We met Rose Marie 19 years ago through Jeff and Karen. She truly loved her family. She wanted to know all about our family and what we were interested in. Always wanting us to eat and drink something along with enjoying jokes and laughter with people. She loved meeting new people. She never met a stranger. I have the mint from her garden growing at our house. I'm always reminded of her when looking at the plant. It's essential for many Lebanese dishes. She was a devout Catholic who enjoyed hugs so much. Jeff and Karen gave Rose Marie a lovely open house birthday that she seemed so happy at because there were lovely guests stopping by to share her special day. We loved being a small part of her beautiful life. Thank you Rose Marie
And thank you to Jeff and Karen who made everything possible for the comfort in her life.
