“ I've been Blessed to work with Craig and Cindy for the last year and to know the family. I can't speak highly enough of him as a father, a husband and a friend. He was as sharp as they come and always had the best attitude during this season. I will really miss the Friday nights we spent time together. I'll consider myself Blessed if some of him rubs off on me. They are no shortage of prayers for you Cindy and if you need my family for anything, consider it done. Luke 23:43

“ *Known the Smiths my entire life. There little sister Susan was my childhood friend!! She left us way too soon!! My brother Terry played football, baseball and everything together from John A White till Southwest High!! Our parents were always together as my parents were acting guardians when the Smiths would be out of town during some sports events due to Richards travels!! Have just been realeased from Hospital but Cindy you and your entire family are in my prayers hope to make service but that to has to be determined!! Prayers for then entire Smith/Abrahamson family!!
