“ RIP Samantha, I just found about about your passing 3 years later. I am sorry that I was not there beyond this night captured in this poem. I wish we could have walked the night forever. Perhaps in the next one.

“ I remember Sammy from food not bombs which we were a part of. I consider Sammy my comrade as well as my friend. It's been a while since I've seen her but she will be deeply missed. I remember how fun she made things at food not bombs and I remember good times with her at the tear down. I especially remember one time i visited with my dog and she got to meet him. My dog was also terrified of their cat and it was silly and funny. My condolences to all family and friends.

“ I met Sammie in the lead up to the KKK rally in Newnan in 2018. We worked together to flyer in the downtown area to try to build local opposition to the rally on a couple of occasions, including during Taste of Newnan. She was a bit nervous at first but got really into it, was engaging with everyone we talked to and sharing her passion for why the rally should not happen in Newnan. She was also really encouraging to me; I would have been very nervous to be doing it without her, and she encouraged me to keep coming back. With her infectious passion, she made it fun and exciting to talk with everyone we could about stopping the rally. She had no fear once we started.

I also worked with her to prepare for an anti-Klan press conference a few weeks later. I was struck by how courageous she was, to be ready to publicly come out as a voice of opposition to the Klan rally. She had never done something like a press conference before, and I could tell she was nervous. But very quickly she showed her strength and confidence and was able to prepare magnificently. I remember that she did an excellent job during the conference itself.

Although I only met her a couple of times, I remember her as an incredibly bright and lively person, someone who tried to bring joy to others around them, and make the world a better place for everyone. She will be missed by many.

With deep condolences,
Brandon S.

“ Sammy! She has always made me feel like I belong. My favorite thing about her is all those random hidden talents! She belly danced and could sing!! She was electrifying! She did things her own way. I remember several times in my life staring at Sammy like...you do what!? Lol. I admired that about her. I just keep thinking about how my hair matched the cake topper she made for Kendal and Blake's wedding and now I feel forever honored to have been decorated like her creation. Y'all are family and I am so heartbroken. I will continue to send my love. - Josy Jones

“ Oh my word, I am so sorry to hear about this devastating loss, Binion family. This is absolutely heartbreaking. It has been many years since I have seen Sammy or Kendal, but they always have, and always will, a hold a special place in my heart. I am thinking of you all at this unfathomable moment, and sending you all love and light. please do not hesitate to reach out to Tyler (Harbin) or myself if there is anything in the world that he or I can do. Again, I am so very sorry for this loss, as the world is a little less bright without Samantha.
