*Dear Ron & family,
I only knew Sandi for a few years, but always looked forward to my hug whenever you both came into Cafe 1485. The whole staff felt a deep fondness for her. We didn't know her in her prime of life, but even in her more recent years she was a warm & loving soul. The love between you, Ron, and Sandi was very evident. With sympathy, Mary Ann aka Mom*

“ Dear Ron and Family, What a breath of fresh air Sandi was, even during her last challenging years. She always had a sweetness about her and I always loved that she connected with me and others even when she didn't know us. As she moves into her new and meticulously-prepared mansion in Heaven, I pray for her peace and joy. I also pray for you all peace and that your memories and faith are sustaining in the days ahead... Blessings to you all, Nanette Manning
