

Sandra Wilborn Oliver

June 28, 1938 - March 15, 2026

Sandra Wilborn Oliver ("Nannie"), age 87, of Newnan, Georgia, passed away on March 15, 2026.

Born in Thomaston, Georgia, Sandra was a spitfire from the start. She lived a life filled with love, laughter, and faith. She worked for many years as a mortgage processor, but let's be honest- her real calling was being "Nannie". She enjoyed traveling, camping, and spending cherished time with family. If there was somewhere to go or something to laugh about, Sandra was already loading up the car.

Sandra was an active member of Cokes Chapel, where she prayed, volunteered, and cheered on everyone else as if they were family, too. She loved being part of both church and company softball teams, and her joyful spirit left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

She created a home where everyone felt welcome and loved. Sandra never met a stranger, and you couldn't leave her house hungry if you tried. She was the kind of woman who'd say exactly what she thought, hand you a plate of food while doing it, and then hug your neck before you left.

Sandra is survived by her loving daughter, Sherrie Kemmerer (Jeff); a grandson she bragged about to everyone, Spencer Kemmerer (Toya); and three great-grandsons-Kayden, Tucker, and Stetson-who could melt her heart with one grin. She is also survived by several beloved nieces and nephews who'll miss her dearly.

She's up in Heaven now catching up with her Best Friend, Louis Oliver; her brother, Lamar Wilborn; and her parents, Harold and Jewel Wilborn. We figure there is laughter, hugging, and many more adventures.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, March 21, 2026 from 2 - 4 pm at McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory, 38 Jackson St., Newnan, GA. The funeral service will follow at 4:00 pm in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home & Crematory with Rev. Billy Earle and Rev. Carson Thaxton officiating. Burial will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, 656 Roscoe Rd., Newnan, GA.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to Cokes Chapel, a place Sandra loved deeply and served faithfully.

She may be gone from sight, but Nannie sure left her mark-on hearts, on memories, and probably a few good meals. The world's gonna feel a little different without her smile and laugh in it.

“ I went through High School with Sandra at Brown High School in Atlanta. We graduated in the class of 1956. She and her brother Lamar were fun people to be around when we were all teenagers. Later, in 1965, I bought my first house up the street from her on N.Olympian Way SW off Cascade avenue. A lot of people don't know it, but when we were teenagers Sandra was a crack shot with a .22 rifle and would have been an ace for the school rifle team in competitions with other schools there in Atlanta. But, alas, those were some different times...."no girls allowed on the rifle team". She was fun to be around at our reunions year after year after year. I'm happy that she knew the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal savior.

“ Some memories of my dear Aunt Sandra. 1) She always had something funny to say. Witty remarks, funny anecdotes, jokes. Sharp sense of humor! 2) At family reunions, she always brought fried okra...just for me, I believe! I arrived late one time and all the okra was gone. She made Louis give me his okra. Haha! 3) Vacation trip planner extraordinaire. She loved planning trips almost as much as the trips themselves. I was fortunate enough to be invited on a RV trip across country. Three weeks of driving and camping that was a blast! The two Banks nieces went too. Great experiences. Wonderful memories made!
I look forward to seeing Aunt Sandra in heaven with family!
