“ Sandy will always hold a special place in my heart. I met my future husband at Sandy and Carl's wedding reception at Skwiat Post in Michigan City. Sandy's brother, Dick, was always a good friend of my husband. Rest in peace, Sandy.

“ Some obituaries struggle to say something nice about someone who has passed. One hundred books could never present what a great person Sandy was in life. I know that our physical life is not "the end". Her spirit will be reassigned and bring that smile and warmth to a deserving being. I remember the last time we spoke in 2014 at my brother Dick's wake. She mended something that needed closure. Carl arrived after a phone call and with tears a rift closed. The "Sandy" effect. Dick and Carl are fishing buddies again and Sandy is the reason.

“ You were the best grandma in the world! I will carry the best memories of you spoiling me as a child (and adult!)...and then spoiling your great-grandkids.
I am so blessed to have spent more time with you the last 7 months you lived in Newnan and I will forever cherish our conversations to and from Mass every week.

I love you so much, Grandma. Give Grandpa a big hug from me! ❤️
