“ Darlene was always thinking of others. She was a good friend to my wife and myself, and to Charlie's lodge. As a matter of fact the lodge members referred to her as "Brother Darlene". She will be missed. God bless the Cooper family.

“ My first recollection of Darlene was at a meeting at Wesley Woods where she had been asked to share her experience as one just beginning an unknown journey. She was so gracious and eager to do anything that might help someone else along the way. I know she was apprehensive as she stood to speak, but she did a great job. While I did not know her in her "other life" what I did observe indicated what a great lady she was. She will be missed.
